4. ANNOUNCEMENTS:

There were handed a copy of the Women's Self Defense class on March 1, 2014 and the Wags and Whiskers event on March 8th.

Mrs. Dockery said the new fence at Wes Crile Park was very nice. Mr. Dockery said the fence at Dwight Hawkins also goods very nice and complimented Mr. Moore on a great job. Mr. Dockery said it improved the appearance at both parks.

5. PUBLIC COMMENT:

There were no members from the public present for this meeting.

6. OLD BUSINESS:

A. None

7. NEW BUSINESS:

a. Community Health Expo discussion:

The members discussed vendors. Mr. Dockery mentioned Ability Rehabilitation on Saxon Blvd. Mrs. Brown passed around flyers on various vendors that she had gotten at the Aging Tree's Health Expo as possible additions to the City's expo this year. The vendors would be limited to 38 to make the room a little less crowded.

Mrs. Brown advised that Florida Hospital was donating 500 plastic bags, bag stuffers, water and physician directories to hand out. The Aging Tree had agreed to sponsor the breakfast; Adkore Rehabilitation would be another sponsor as well as a City vendor, Electrical Solutions.

Mrs. Dockery said she will still be a vendor at the event for Brain Trust.

The members stated that they would be willing to pass out the flyers once they are ready.

Mrs. Brown said she would check to see if the Blood Mobile and Flow Mobile would be willing to come out. Mr. Moore said he did not think the Flow Mobile worked on the weekends.

The members asked about identification badges for themselves while discussing City business with prospective vendors and handing out flyers. Mr. Moore said he would give the members his business cards and if they had questions they could call him.

There is one food vendor who was here for the Arts Festival and it was discussed that we could use that vendor again for the expo.

A suggestion was made to have an area for the kids and possibly a face painter. Mrs. Brown said she would set up the kids table indoor like last year, where the kids could stop and get stuff.

Mrs. Dockery said she would love to see the Epilepsy group included. Mrs. Dockery says she knows someone and she will make the call. Mrs. Beauregard said the Epilepsy group does a great presentation and we could have them set up in the room upstairs. Mr. Moore said we could hand her the mike and let her address the people in the room.

Mr. Moore asked about the Autism group. He said they wanted to use our soccer field to start an autistic soccer program for children.

Mrs. Brown said everything should be ready by the March meeting. Mrs. Beauregard said if she can get the registration form electronically then she can pass it along to her associates.

Mrs. Beauregard made a suggestion to invite the therapeutic riding group, even if it was just to advertise.

Mrs. Brown will ask Mrs. Wert if she wants to do the kitchen assignment as she had done a great job last year.

Miss Denizac asked to be excused as she had to leave.

b. Information/Updates – Steve Moore:

Mr. Moore said new air conditioning was going into Wes Crile. The 45 ton unit was going to be replaced with a 35 ton unit. He said we were also re-doing the basketball courts at Harris Saxon and the Skate Park. He said the Philadelphia Union was still training and would be at Dewey Boster till the end of the month.

He told the group that on February 25th he was hosting the Volusia County Parks & Recreation Workshop in conjunction with Bright House Networks and Team C Sports.

Mr. Moore told them there would be a new playground with swings installed at Dwight Hawkins.

8. DIRECTOR COMMENTS:

Mr. Moore had no further comments.

9. MEMBER COMMENTS:

Mr. Dockery said he is ready for Eggstravaganza and the Expo. He also asked about the Race Trac that was coming into the city and wanted to know when it would be ready.

Ms. Beauregard said a friend had mentioned to her that the sign by Saxon Boulevard and I-4 was not working. Mr. Moore said the modular board (the internal part) had been changed to digital by the company under contract and they had ordered the parts. He said it should be up and running soon.

Mr. DeLeon said he was happy to be here. He would check his schedule and let us know if he would be available for Eggstravaganza.

10. NEXT MEETING DATE:

The next meeting date is scheduled for Thursday, March 20, 2014.
